

Good Roads

BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN
Director
Janesville Daily Gazette Information Bureau, Washington, D. C.

Washington, July 19.—One of the most colossal road building programs ever undertaken in any country is to be carried out in the United States during the next few years. It is estimated that by 1921 close to a billion dollars will have been spent for good roads in this country. Of this huge sum, $275,000,000 has been appropriated by Congress as federal aid in road construction.

In addition to giving direct financial assistance, the federal government is also encouraging the improvement of highways by distributing to the various states some 20,000 motor trucks used by the army during the war. These trucks are to be turned over to the highway commissioners of the states, and are to be used only for building purposes.

For more than a century—that is, to 1918—the federal government did practically nothing to aid or abet in developing improved highways. In 1918 Congress voted $75,000,000 for federal highway aid on the 50-50 basis with the states, but on account of the war much of the road work contemplated at that time was held in abeyance. Now there is a revival of interest on the part of the national government in better roads, which finds expression through the medium of the bureau of public roads.

The first and only national highway constructed by the government was the old, historic Cumberland road. The work on that turnpike was begun under President Jefferson and was continued under Monroe. Beginning at Cumberland, Md., the road ran through Maryland, Pennsylvania, what is now West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, St. Louis, and on to the Gulf of Mexico. It was the only road of the kind in the world, before the completion of the project and the road stopped short somewhere in Illinois. The old Cumberland road was a hard, beaten trail, open up traffic between the east and west, and it was planned in such a way as to have direct communication with the Atlantic ocean. The scheme was to use the stagecoach for transport from western points to Cumberland, then the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, which is still in operation, from Cumberland to Washington, connecting with the Potomac river to the ocean. So does it appear that the unfolding of time quite upset this elaborately worked out government project.

Although the Cumberland trail fell into disuse for a time after railroads began to link up the east and the west, the greater portion of it has been improved within recent years by the various states through which it runs. Many of the old pioneers who went west in the early part of the nineteenth century traveled by stage coach over this early ribbon of good roads.

Need Becomes Obvious.

The need of good roads is becoming more and more obvious with the increase in the use of motor vehicles. Ten years ago the highways of this country were subjected to traffic scarcely different from that of the horse and carriage in revolutionary days. The past decade has witnessed a tremendous change in highway transportation. The motor vehicle is responsible for the revolution in the highway and it is due to a new stress upon the 200,000 or more miles of roads in the United States.

Today there are said to be about 5,500,000 motor vehicles in this country. Of this number it is estimated that 500,000 are commercial cars, ranging from light delivery wagons to heavy trucks.

A total of 45,000,000 passenger miles are traveled during the year. This figure exceeds that for the railways of the United States for the year of 1916, which was 34,000,000,000 passenger miles. It is also shown that good roads have a direct effect upon the cost of living. Motor trucks and good roads enable the farmer to get his products to market at a price less than of hauling it in wagons and shipping it by rail. Often foodstuffs perish on the farm because of the lack of proper transportation facilities. The result is that the farmer is forced to sell his products at a loss because of the slowness of their journey. Good roads speed them up.

War Causes Delay.

The bureau of public roads gives the cash expended for the highway program of 1915 at $267,000,000. During the war most of the big road building projects were temporarily suspended and the result is that most of the highways through the country are in a poor condition.

The work of improving the highways already in existence and starting new projects will be limited only to the supply of labor and materials. The only limitation is the state of the public roads bureau. "Road construction work which is progressing in all parts of the country," he said, "labor there is in the land, and it is my opinion that before long there will be a shortage of workmen for road work. During the next three years we look for a complete halt in construction program carried out that has ever been undertaken in any part of the world."

All over the country bond issues for the construction of roads are being announced. States are taking advantage of the opportunity to receive financial help from the government under the terms of the federal aid act, which provides that when a state spends one dollar for road work it is entitled to a similar amount from the government. Most of the states are getting federal aid on a 50-50 basis. The limitations prescribed by the federal aid act are that the roads shall be "rural post roads." When a road has met this condition it is the duty of the secretary of agriculture to give the approval to its construction and federal aid is extended.

The federal highway council, which has headquarters in Washington, is co-operating with some 4,000 other organizations throughout the country interested in good roads for a connected system of national highways to be constructed and maintained with the support of the federal government.

Highway Bill Before Congress.

As the result of the efforts of this organization, a bill has been introduced in Congress for a national system of highways. Its object is to build in each state trunk line highways to the extent of not less than 2 percent nor more than 5 percent of the total mileage of the state, and to join them up with the main trunk lines of other states so as to make a complete national system connecting the entire country. The advocates of this measure claim that if such a plan is adopted (Continued on page 2.)

WAR HEROES MARCH IN PEACE FETE

MAGNIFICENT RECEPTION IS GIVEN MARCHING HOSTS.

PERSHING LEADS YANK TROOPS

Celebrations Take Place Throughout Entire British Empire.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

London, July 19.—Nineteen thousand allied soldiers, picked men from famous combat divisions, the names of which are written large on the pages of history of the world war—marched through London's streets today in celebration of the return of peace. The line of parade was more than six miles in length.

King George and other members of the royal family, army and navy officers and leaders of both houses of parliament, stood on the steps of the Victoria memorial, in front of Buckingham palace, to receive the salutes of the warriors.

Streets Bright With Colors.

A magnificent reception was given the marching hosts. The streets were bright with allied colors. Eager spectators jammed every place of vantage, even the roofs being blackened with thousands of the old pioneers and modern thousands were erected for demobilized soldiers; an effort being made to arrange that every soldier home on leave from France should see the procession. Among those who witnessed the parade from these stands were four thousand widows, mothers and children of officers and men killed during the war.

Parade of 1900. Paraders camped at Kensington gardens yesterday and last night. They were drawn from the British, American, French, Italian, Belgian, Japanese, Polish, Rumanian, Portuguese, Serbian, Slovenian and Czech-Slovakian armies. In the line of march the contingents were arrayed in alphabetical order, the Americans leading the parade.

Pershing Leads Yanks.

The Americans, led by Gen. John J. Pershing, marched in three battalions of 33 officers and 1,100 men each. Belgium had in line 440 officers and men led by General Gillman. France was represented by 990 men and Italy by 335. There were five officers and 50 men for each of the other allied nations.

Next came Field Marshal Haig and his staff, leading 3,000 British troops of every branch of the service, led by General Edmund. The British major force contingent. All the dominions with the exception of Canada were represented in line.

London, which celebrated the victory, gave itself up to merry making. The authorities provided four huge areas for dancing on Hyde Green and Regents park.

Elsewhere in the city, military bands gave concerts and pagents and scenes from Shakespeare were given by theatrical clubs.

Tonight the imperial choir will appear in peace and thanksgiving performance in Hyde park. This organization, numbers more than 10,000 singers. The public will be provided with the words of songs to be sung grand illumination of the state patriotic numbers. Fire works will end the day's festivities.

All British Celebrate.

Peace was celebrated by the British empire today, not only in London, but in every part of the vast dominions over which floats the Union Jack. London's great Victory parade was the most spectacular event of the day, but throughout the country every city, town and hamlet held a peace carnival.

Everywhere the returned heroes of the war were honored. Those who did not return from the battlefields, however, were not forgotten. In every town or city there were prayers for the fallen.

There will be blaze from hill and mountain tops the flare of fire kindled in honor of the return of peace. In Dover, there will be a grand illumination of the city, admiralty turning over to the committee there a large number of flares. Invented by Commander Brock, who was killed at Zebruggo, who used this means of illumination in the defense of the coast and shipping from U-boats during the war.

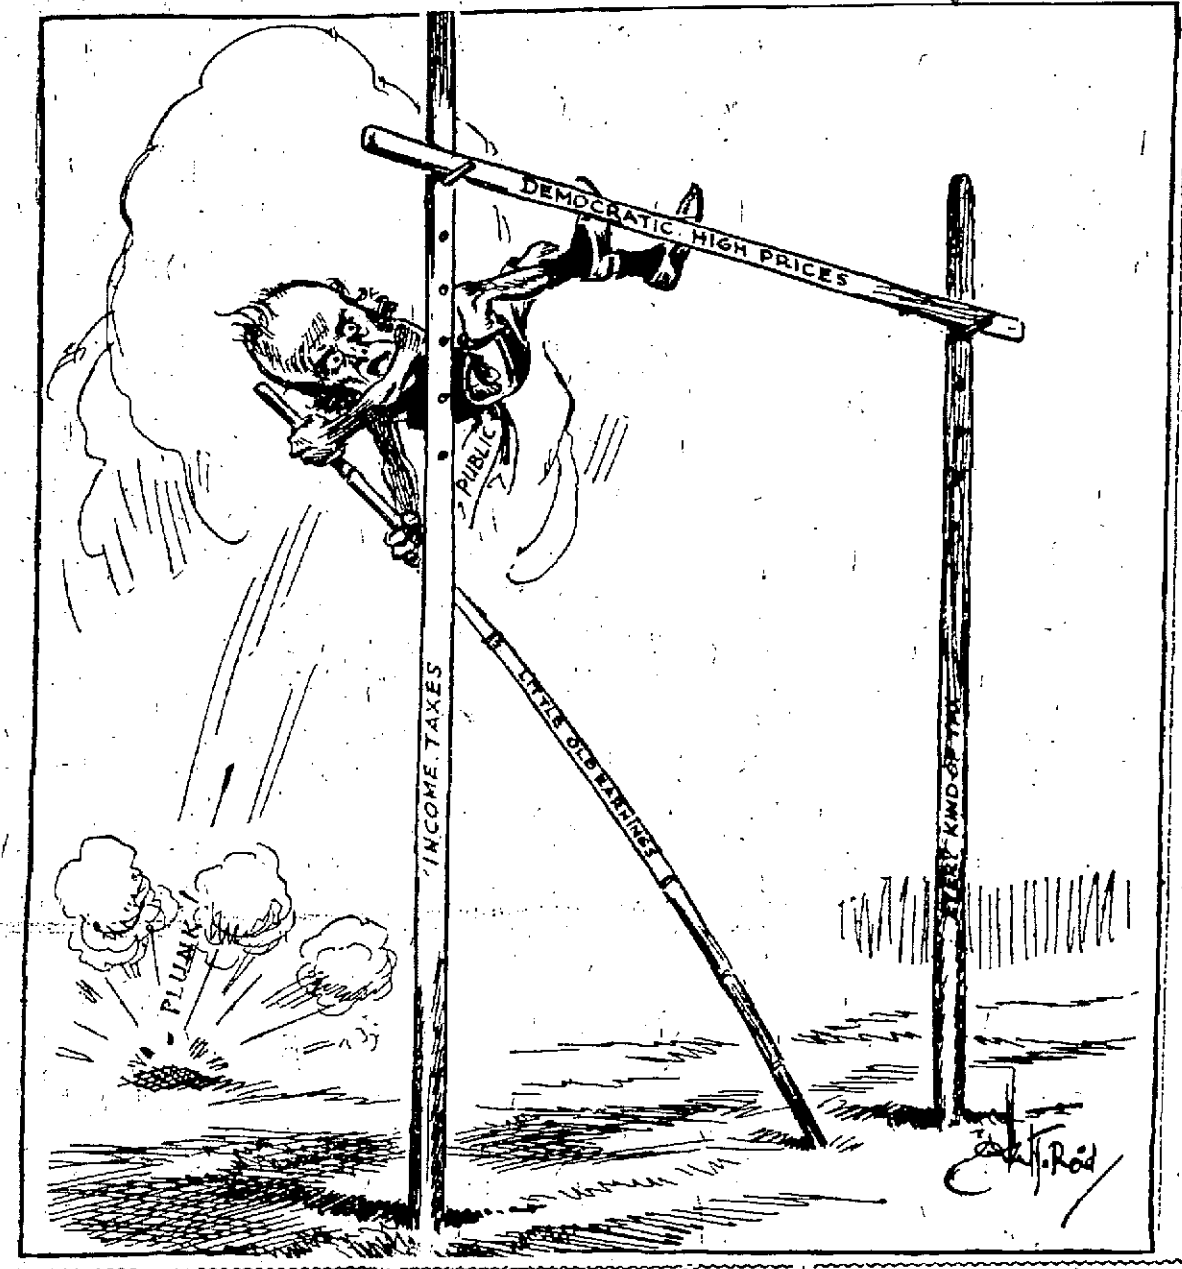

The navy will give a big display off the mouth of the Thames, more than a hundred ships anchored in a line five miles long, taking part.

One of the largest celebrations of the day outside of London, was held at Dublin, where Irish regiments paraded before Field Marshal Viscount French.

CHAMPION HIGH VAULTER

CHICAGO STREET CAR EMPLOYEES TO STRIKE; FIREMEN WALK OUT

Chicago, July 19.—The employees of Chicago's transportation lines have decided by an overwhelming vote to go on strike if their demands for increased wages and better working conditions are not met by the companies. Out of a total of 13,039 votes cast, 12,951 were in favor of calling a strike. The demand of the men for a 30 percent increase in wages was approved by the international union. A meeting will be held Monday or Tuesday, and a date for the strike set.

Officials of the companies however, said it was expected an agreement would be reached in a few days and the strike avoided.

Every engine and his assistant in the Chicago fire department walked out at 5 o'clock this morning in accordance with a decision reached yesterday after the city had declined to grant the demand of the men for higher wages. Two hundred and fifty of the city employees were affected by the walkout.

The water pressure in the city mains is not strong enough to throw a stream more than one story high and heads of the department expressed grave fears in case of a big fire.

Dislike for policemen and guards is given as the reason that ten thousand workers in the stockyards are out on strike today. The men declare they will not return to work until the guardians of the law are withdrawn.

S. C. Freese, superintendent of Wilson and Company, said the strikes are the result of a radical element among the men.

Hope of ending the building trades strike was forecast today when it was announced that a delegation of members of the building trades council will seek an audience with the contractors who locked the men out in an effort to bring about an agreement. Construction work, already badly crippled, will be at a standstill by nightfall.

More than 100,000 men now are idle.

MOTHER OFFERS REWARD TO FIND MISSING SON

REWARD FUND

Mrs. F. F. Gehrke.....$500.00
Friend.....$ 1.00

Mrs. F. F. Gehrke, 215 East Milwaukee street, offered a reward of $50 today to start a fund for the person who could find her missing son, Glen Longford, believed by her to have been murdered after he received his discharge at Camp Grant several weeks ago. The reward fund is open for contributions. Friends wishing to help are asked to send their names to the Gazette.

"I am firmly convinced that my son has met with foul play and I am determined that his body has been hidden somewhere between this city and Rockford," Mrs. Gehrke said. Mrs. Gehrke asserts that she visited the Rockford police office about two weeks ago and after talking with the man in charge of the office for several minutes she was unable to get him to offer any aid in locating her son.

"He told me that most likely my boy was out drinking with some woman and he would return when he had enough of it," Mrs. Gehrke said. "I told the officer that my son was not that type of a boy and I was sure that he wouldn't consider doing such a thing. The officer simply laughed and asked me why I hadn't taken the matter up with the Red Cross as the police had enough to do."

Mrs. Gehrke said she has made every effort possible to locate her boy but to no avail. She said that letters were written to 10 soldiers who were in the same company with her boy and only one answered. He said he didn't remember the missing boy by name but might know him if he saw a picture of him.

Mrs. Gehrke is firmly convinced that the body of her boy has been hidden between here and Rockford and as a last resort this morning she offered the above reward with the hopes of locating the missing boy.

U. S. OFFICIAL AIDED BROTHER-IN-LAW, CHARGED IN SENATE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Washington, July 19.—Charges that John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency, aided his brother, Louis B. Williams, Richmond, Va., in negotiating for the purchase by the government of property in Washington valued at $4,200,000 and received part of the commission for the sale, were made before the house rules committee today by Representative McFadden, republican, Pennsylvania.

Evidence that the comptroller made use of his office for private gain is in my possession," Mr. McFadden said. "It is very complete. It shows that he was involved in a financial way with purchase by the government of the Arlington hotel for $4,200,000. He aided his brother in negotiating the sale and I am prepared to prove that he received part of the commission."

Mr. McFadden declared he also could prove that Mr. Williams had taken part in other transactions of a most serious nature.

KONENKAMP QUILTS AS HEAD OF TELEGRAPHERS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Chicago, July 19.—S. J. Konenkamp resigned today as president of the Commercial Telegraphers Union of America. In his letter to the executive board tendering his resignation, Mr. Konenkamp said:

"My reasons for this action are purely personal and my chief regret will be to sever the harmonious and at all times cordial relations with my fellow officers. I accepted the presidency of the organization in 1908 to serve two years and have spent twelve years in the office now. At that time it was my ambition to practice law and now I hope to see that ambition realized."

Mr. Konenkamp also stated that the next convention of the telegraphers is scheduled for October but might be advanced to August.

Boston Still Walks; Several Injured in Jam

Boston, July 19.—The strike on the Boston elevated railway system entered its third day today, and although there were somewhat better facilities for entering and leaving the city, methods of transportation without the business districts were still entirely inadequate. Yesterday several persons were injured in the crush and one man was killed in a jam of automobiles.

Meanwhile efforts to find a basis of adjustment of the controversy over wages was renewed.

DRYS WILL RUSH ENFORCEMENT ACT

President Expresses Satisfaction With Conference With G. O. P. Leaders.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Washington, July 19.—The $613,000,000 sundry civil appropriation bill, revised by Congress to meet objections, was signed today by President Wilson.

The new bill carries $14,000,000 for the rehabilitation and education of disabled service men and against $6,000,000 in the measure vetoed by the president a week ago. Included in the bill are appropriations for various government departments, some of which have been technically without funds since the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1.

Drys Hustle Fight.

Dry leaders in the house gave notice today that they would not permit any other measure to obstruct the prohibition enforcement bill.

As the house was ready to resume, Chairman Good of the appropriations committee asked unanimous consent to call up a joint resolution making appropriation bills signed by the president after July 1, retroactive to that date.

Representative Currie, republican, Michigan, Chairman Volstead's right hand man on the judiciary committee in the enforcement fight, objected, even when informed that the measure would take ten minutes to consider the resolution.

Dry Leaders Resentful.

Some of the dry leaders still showed their resentment of the refusal of majority yesterday to approve a night session.

When Representative Bland, democrat, Missouri, wanted to amend one of Chairman Volstead's provisions relating to the manufacture of flavoring extracts, he ran afoul of the determination of the drys to shut off debate. After speaking five minutes, without time to explain fully what he wanted to say, he failed to get consent for three minutes more.

Wilson Pleased With Talks.

President Wilson's advisers said today he was highly pleased with the attitude of republican senators with whom he has conferred on the peace treaty and the league of nations covenant. He also was said to feel that the conference at the White House had cleared up many doubtful points in the minds of the senators he had seen.

There was a recess today in senate debate on the peace treaty as well as in its consideration by the foreign relations committee.

At two meetings yesterday the committee made a little progress in preliminary reading of the treaty text, but gave up hope of completing the task this week, and adjourned until Monday. The senate also adjourned over today.

President Wilson had no engagements to see senators today, but is expected to resume his talks with republican senators Monday.

NOSKE PUTS DAMPER ON SOCIALIST MEETING

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Berlin, Friday, July 19.—Reminding the socialists of both factions that martial law still prevails in Berlin, Gustav Noske, the minister of defense points out that the holding of open air meetings and parades within the limits of Great Britain will not be permitted.

Noske's restrictions have called forth a strong protest from the independent socialists who are planning to call a general strike Monday next. They now are fathering a proposition for a demonstration against the German government in addition to the international manifestation. The German government should be demonstrated again as well as the "imperialistic governments of France and England," the independents call declares.

NAVAL CRAFT LEAVE TO GUARD WEST

BEGINNING OF VOYAGE MARKS EPOCH IN AMERICAN HISTORY.

PANAMA CANAL TO BE GIVEN TEST

No Unusual Ceremonies Mark Departure of Vanguard of Ships.

(By Associated Press.)

Old Point Comfort, Va., July 18.—The vanguard of the Pacific fleet sailed from its anchorage here at 8:30 this morning, bound for the western coast via the Panama canal. No unusual ceremonies marked the departure of the six superdreadnaughts and 30 destroyers and tenders which are leading the way for the 200 naval craft now assigned to Pacific waters.

The beginning of the voyage marks an epoch in American naval history. For the first time the fleet has been divided with exactly half of its power assigned to guard the western seaboard. For the first time also the strategic value of the canal is to be fully tested when Admiral Hugh Rodman moves his armada through to Pacific waters. And for the first time the fleet, the far west are to see with their own eyes the full pomp and power of the navy that has been their pride for years.

Blinded Messages.

Through the night, the great fleet lay blinking and winking its countless messages across the silent roadstead. The big, dim battle craft and the slight destroyers, vague shapes with brilliant eyes of light under a cloud-streaked sky, seemed to be talking among themselves in the dark.

Daybreak brought a colorful sunrise peering long crimson fingers of light west of the cape, the ships for the eventful hour. In from the Atlantic also came the last tide to serve them, swinging them bow on for the start.

Admiral Rodman had set 5:30 for the sailing hour. He would tolerate no delay; "wait for no stragglers," his captains were told with characteristic force. The far west are to see with their own eyes the full pomp and power of the navy that has been their pride for years.

Nimble Jackies Hasten.

Gradually the stir died away. Boat after boat was hoisted, dripping to its checks, on deck. Nimble, barefooted jackies hastened to their posts, dashing and making all ship-shape aboard for the voyage. The white jackets of officers and men stood out plainly against the grim grey war paint.

Ashore little groups of wet-eyed women, sailors' wives or sweethearts, crowded dockhead and verandas to wave "Godspeed."

At last, bugles called softly from the fleet. The hurrying white figures on each wide deck were suddenly still. It was "colors" and as the stars of the distant bands rose and fell on the breeze, the men ashore, men in the white of the navy or in army khaki stood rigidly at attention facing the bright flags flung from every ship.

All is Hurray Again.

In a moment all was hurry again. The sun picked out the brass work of the ships to set it glowing. It caught the cold strings of flags from signal arms, showed clear the gesturing boards of semaphores on high bridge ends, helped jackies with waving arms send jerky greetings to comrades on other ships. The engine blue flicker of the daylight "blinkers" joined in here and there. The men of the fleet were talking now and messages crisped each other all up and down the long line under the shifting smoke pall.

Promptly at 8:30 a destroyer stole slowly from its place in line behind the battle ships, the lone straggler, a signal flag on the New Mexico, where Admiral Rodman's four starred flag flapped lazily above the hooded top of the tall cage mast, showed that the order had been given to begin the voyage.

Swings Toward Sea.

The destroyer swung toward the sea, tripping smoothly down the channel. Another follower and then another, spaced at perfect intervals. They formed a lane toward the sea, drawn up in two columns.

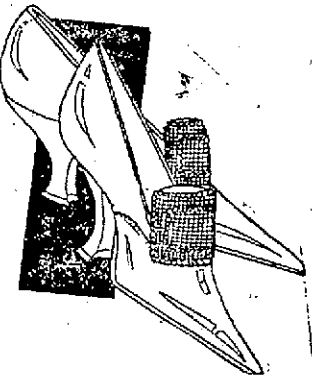

First to leave her anchorage, the flagship New Mexico circled slowly and swung into the water lane between the destroyers.

On her heels came the Mississippi, looking like a sister ship with long overhanging prow. In order, the Wyoming, Arkansas, New York and Texas steamed down the moving lane, the tenders closed in behind and the whole fleet moved off across the bay to the open.

MACHINE BUCKS; DR. RICHARDS HURT

Dr. F. T. Richards, 108 Cherry street, had his right arm badly injured last evening while he was attempting to crank his automobile. The machine jumped forward as the engine started crushing Dr. Richards' arm. Dr. Richards said he would be unable to resume his practice for at least a month. Despite the fact that his arm was badly crushed no bones were broken.

GOOD ROADS SYSTEM FOR NEXT 3 YEARS IS COLOSSAL PROGRAM

ed by congress it will create a system of national highways independent of the states—highways that will carry interstate traffic. Such a system of national roads, proponents of the measure say, is necessary for the welfare of the country as a whole. It is the contention of the national highway council that the personnel of the state highway departments is constantly changing, and to a greater or less degree the state highway policies are changed with each succeeding administration. It is therefore out of the question to expect any connected system of roads between the 48 states, over which there is no supervisory power, and between which there is little co-ordination. Only the national government can lay down and execute the nation-wide development of roads. It looks as though the federal government might get into this game on a stupendous scale in another decade.

W. C. T. U. IN ANNUAL PICNIC-INSTITUTE

The local W. C. T. U. held its annual picnic and institute on the lawn of W. E. Wisner, 421 Augusta street, yesterday afternoon. Encouraging reports were given by the club members, which are working on the drive that is now on to raise their share of the million dollar fund that is to be raised in the United States to aid the army for world-wide prohibition by 1925. Several donations from friends of the cause were turned in yesterday. About 40 members and friends had a picnic supper on the lawn, after which Rev. R. G. Pierson of the First Baptist church addressed the audience on the subject of "True Patriotism." He emphasized the fact that true patriotism consists of something more than what appears on the surface. That it consists not only of love for one's country and love for one's fellow men, but love for one's fellow-men, brotherly love that applies to the individual regardless of his caste or position in life. He said it must be enough to extend to our brothers across the seas. No man who profits by the misfortune or vice of another is a true patriot, he said. After the address by Rev. Pierson, ice cream was served on the lawn.

Voice of the People

June 23, 1919.
Editor Janesville Gazette:
"Dear Sir: I have been reading clippings from various newspapers, for and against soldiers' bonus. One signed 'Civilian' will say, if he were a soldier, instead of a civilian, he would have different views. I have yet to meet anyone who thinks it would be better for him to receive the bonus."
The idea does not enter his head, as in most cases, the money is badly needed. Most of us have given up everything to come over here, and need every cent to make a new start. We need a new start, unless we were a "bum" before entering the service, who will shirk employment on his return, whether given state bonus or not.

"Many have no work waiting and a little financial assistance is of the most importance, not only for themselves, but principally for their families. To the most of us, the plan of giving $10 a month for every month in service, seems the best, since the longer a man has been away the more money he has lost in wages, and the more his business has depreciated. His family has been deprived of his income for the entire time he has been in the service."

In many cases his family has been obliged to leave its home, for one or two rooms, and on account of high cost of storage, been obliged to sell the furniture at a great sacrifice. In one case I know of, the soldier must go to another town for a job, pay expenses of moving, buy new furniture, pay rent in advance, pay for insurance, his board in a new place, his family in order to get a new start.

An officer came along at that time and I showed him where the dog had attacked me. The officer in question asked me my name, but that was as far as he got on the case.
"I went over to the park and stayed there for three quarters of an hour, and in that time I saw the dog jump at another man, but don't know if he got bit or not. But I know that if the officer had attended to his business and had done his duty, the dog wouldn't have got the chance to jump at the second man. I also told the officer the second time, after I saw the dog jump at this man and I was around for about 20 minutes after I told him this time. But the officer didn't do a thing, and left the dog free to bite as many people as he wished to."

Weekly Market Review.
Chicago, July 18.—Cattle: The market has developed in the corn market this week, chiefly on account of record-breaking declines in foreign exchange and as a result of disturbed labor conditions. Compared with a week ago, corn prices this morning ranged from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents lower, and provisions varying from unchanged figures to 1 1/2 down.

At Chicago, a broadened speculative demand followed raising of the blockade against Germany, and notwithstanding that bullish sentiment was temporarily increased by a scare about possible crop damage from dry hot weather, the smash in sterling rates became more and more of a dominant factor. It looks as though the moralization of sterling was found to be interfering greatly with new export business in all commodities and this condition was intensified by the marine workers' strike. Meanwhile, other industrial conditions were shaken, and the confidence of even rural bulls appeared to have been shaken. Selling to advance crop prices yet this season, but afterward reacted to a material extent with corn.

Provisions: Under a sudden sag, Chicago, July 18.—Wheat: Continued today in the corn market as a result of the sentiment regarding economic conditions and the crop outlook. Shorts and commission houses continued to the decline, but never failed to last. Opening prices, which ranged from 3 1/2 to 3 3/4, were followed by a general recovery, but then by a fresh set-back.

Renewed strength developed toward the last, owing more or less to sharp upturns in foreign exchange rates. Demand and shipping demand showed improvement, and the oats market was tending higher. The close was unsettled at 3 1/2 to 3 3/4 net advance with September 10 1/2 to 1 1/2 and December 1 1/2 to 1 1/2.

Oats received better support than corn did. After opening unchanged at 2 1/2 to 2 3/4, including September at 7 1/2 to 7 3/4, the market scored moderate gains all around.

Provisions: Under a sudden sag, Chicago, July 18.—Corn: No. 2 mixed nominal; No. 2 yellow 1 1/2 to 1 3/4; No. 2 white 1 1/2 to 1 3/4; No. 3 1 1/2 to 1 3/4; No. 4 1 1/2 to 1 3/4; No. 5 1 1/2 to 1 3/4; Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON

LETTERS MAY BE ADDRESSED TO MRS. THOMPSON, IN CARE OF THE GAZETTE

HEART AND HOME... There is only one girl in a hundred who would be so big about it and refrain from telling anyone. In your letter ask if you may see her again and prove yourself to be a friend.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: There is a boy who is of the richest family in town. His mother and two more ladies came to my home about three weeks ago. They wanted us to show them where a lady lived that belongs to our church. I didn't mind. I sat in front with the boy. When we came back his mother told us to go for a ride. We went and from then I began to like him very much.

I met him at church at an ice cream supper which his mother was in charge of. His mother and he came and did a lot of work toward making me so much I felt as if he liked me. Do you think he does?

What can I do to make him like me more?

The boy may like you, but if he is deeply interested he will not be content to look at you at church; he will ask to be with you.

Do nothing to make him like you more. It would not be good form to do so.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young girl sixteen years of age. There is a boy that I like very much and it seems as though I have known him a very long time, but I have not. I am going to have a party and I would like to invite him, but it is said that he never goes to parties without his sister, and I do not know her. Do you think it would be all right to ask him?

Yes, it would be all right to invite the boy to the party. If you cared to have his sister you could ask him to bring her, even though you have not met her.

I believe she will forgive you. She must be a gentle, forgiving, loving girl to take your meanness so sweetly.

GINGHAM REMNANT MAKES THIS FROCK

BY ELOISE

The thrifty woman hails July with delight for it brings with it those wonderful events called "July Clearance Sales" where one may buy almost everything at "greatly reduced prices" as the advertisements say. In this season when there is scarcely a frock which is not made of at least two materials the woman who seeks the July remnant counters shows good judgment for she will find many odd pieces of gingham and linens and other high-priced materials which are rarely marked down.

Here is just such a frock made of remnant of green and white checked gingham combined with white voile. The skirt is a straight narrow model and the blouse is made of the white voile with front and back panel, collar, cuffs and pockets of the gingham. It is cool, neat and easily laundered. Making it just the dress for the camper or the gardener. This is only one of the host of attractive designs which are possible when two materials are combined and so the July shopper will do well to look for the remnant counter sales.

A Chain Made Into a Bond.

"That fine old Saxon point of view 'What is the good of a family if one cannot be disagreeable in the bosom of it?' has been modified by the simple circumstances that the family bosom is no longer a fixed and permanent asylum."

—Agnes Repplier.

In our town live two middle aged sisters. Some years ago they decided to give up the old home, which had been built in a large family and was no longer suited to their needs. Of which step the town thoroughly approved. But when they decided to board in different houses in different parts of the town, well you can imagine what Our Town thought of that.

"Maybe they have quarreled, over the dividing up of the property."

It don't look well when two own sisters, all that's left in the world, cant live together.

"What would their mother think?"

The Town is Not Resigned.

These are just a few of the comments that were exchanged in the town when the sisters had decided to exchange their home for a boarding house. The town has acquiesced but I could hardly say it has become resigned.

How deeply the idea that people of a family must live together, whether or not they need to or want to is implanted.

As a matter of fact, these sisters enjoy each other much more under the present circumstances than they ever did before. They were always very congenial in certain ways but were on each other very much in certain other ways. As things now stand they are on a great deal and apart just enough to make that togetherness a pleasure. What was an iron chain of circumstance has been transmuted into a golden bond of affection.

Not Because They Like The Chum Better.

We all know how often sisters or brothers seem to find little joy in each other's companionship, but are devoted to some friend who lives around the corner. Is that because the chum is much more congenial or just because they do not have to see too much of him or her?

I am a great believer in the wisdom of not drawing the matrimonial bond too tight. I think husbands and wives get more out of each other when they keep up some of the other contacts. It is next to impossible for one personality to satisfy another in the every phase of life. I can fancy all the young lovers assuring themselves that their case is one in a million and life will be more fully rounded and more satisfying where each keeps up some of the old interests even if the other does not share them.

You'll Be Glad to Get Back.

It is often advocated that husbands and wives take their yearly vacation separately. I am not sure that this is always wise but surely an occasional vacation from each other is a healthy thing. The most comfortable position in the world would become uncomfortable if you never moved between husband and wife—if you get away and stretch your muscles as it were, you will be glad to go back to the old position.

I don't like that mataphor. It is too suggestive of the old shoe idea. But I can't seem to think of a better one. Contributions solicited.

HEALTH TALKS

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

LETTERS MAY BE ADDRESSED TO DR. BRADY, IN CARE OF THE GAZETTE

THE SOAP BOX MILK REFRIGERATOR

The problem of keeping milk cold in summer weather, when bacterial changes in milk not kept refrigerated cause so many disastrous outbreaks of babies, especially serious this summer, is being solved by an ingenious device. Here is a bulletin issued by the United States Public Health Service.

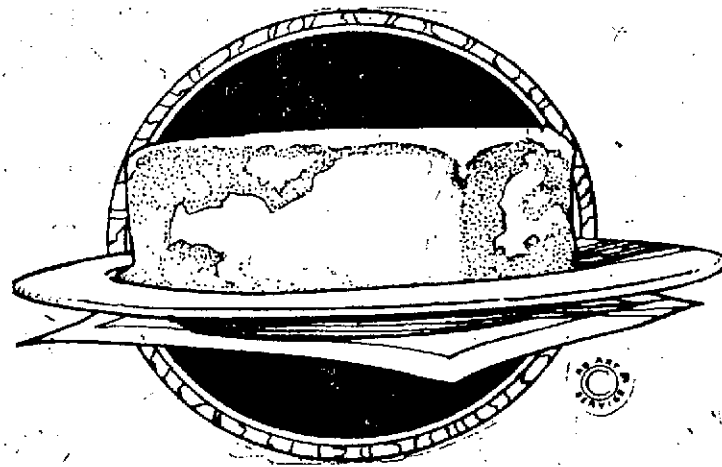

A Home-Made Milk Refrigerator. Milk that is not kept cold is a dangerous food for babies. Every minute that the milk is much above the temperature of ice the germs of disease are increasing in it at an alarming rate. Very many babies die of summer complaint merely because they have been given milk that has stood for hours in a warm room. Keeping the bottle in a refrigerator containing milk safe food, for the temperature in these boxes is often 55 degrees to 65 degrees F., that is far above the freezing point.

Many mothers who have refrigerators are unable to buy enough ice in summer to preserve the milk in them for twenty-four hours. This should not be, for anyone can make at home a cheap but efficient milk refrigerator, requiring very little ice. A simple refrigerator of this kind uses less than carrot. Cook slowly until meat is tender. Remove meat, sprinkle with salt and pepper, dredge with flour, and saute in pork fat. Strain liquor (there should be two cups). Melt two tablespoons of butter, add four tablespoons of flour and strained liquor. Bring to boiling point, season with salt and pepper and pour around meat. Garnish with parsley.

Duchess Potatoes—Two cups hot rich potatoes add two tablespoons butter, one-half teaspoon salt, and yolks of three eggs slightly beaten. Shape, using pastry bag and tube, into mounds, pyramids or any original design. Brush over with beaten egg diluted with one teaspoon water, and brown in hot oven.

worm or the microscopic eggs of tapeworm. Cure for Worms. Dr. Brady thanks numerous correspondents who have informed him of cures for worms. He would be glad to print each remedy recommended, as most of them are harmless enough. But the fact is that worms come and go very frequently, irrespective of treatment. If a wart happens to leave after you have sprinkled from your grandmother's ground it, well and good, but if we were to recommend the sure cure here nine readers out of ten would find the remedies useless and decide that Dr. Brady gives poor advice. A little local anesthetic and the knife, in the doctor's hands of course, is the only satisfactory remedy for worms.

The following letter to The Billboard looks as though the European trip of the great Kingling, Barnum & Bailey show combined would be postponed until another two days.

"The Kingling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey show combined would be part of tremendous business in Boston. Bales and bales of straw had been used to seat the people. Quite a number of the performers visited in the city. The show will be in a sell-out playing at Framingham. The street car strike at Lowell did not affect the business to any extent. Two shows were given, the night performance was a big triumph for the Ringling Bros. and a big triumph for all big business. Big business also resulted for the show at Lowell, Fitchburg, Worcester, and Providence. More saws, saws, saws from the Ringling Bros. now at Boston—on an addition to clown alley.

"Buck Baker's flying auto's greatest fault is that it never wants to come down. The Henry got to flying, the other night, and it took five men to pull it down."

The All Star Trio, Wilbur Williams, Jay Iltah, and Ed, Norwood, are still grabbing every available space in the dailies. Frank and Mark Huling are putting on wonderful sea displays at the Casino—surfers, and surfers at one time. The two clown sea acts are causing quite a lot of comment. With Alfred Loyall's wonderful canine act in the center rings, this is one of the finest animal numbers ever seen in the city.

"As far as can be discovered it seems as though the proposed Ringling invasion of London and Paris next winter will be called off for another year. The Ringling Bros. intend the American circus magnates, the Ringling Bros., to bring over their combined shows and open on boxing day at the Olympia in London and at the Hippodrome in Paris. It appears as if the trip will have to be postponed.

"A victory circus and allied fair will open at the Olympia on December 17, while the Ringling Bros. equestrians from the different nations who fought side by side during the war. When the Ringling-Barnum proposition was first suggested to the management of the Olympia, the management was in favor, but subsequently the authorities seemed to feel that the great big winter circus, conducted heretofore by the Ringling Bros., was the

There is a picturesque Mexican background in "The Ghost of the Gambler," the last of the series. The story is set in the old city of Mexico, and the hero is a gambler who has become a hard case. He is a man of power and influence, and he is also a man of great courage. He is a man who has been through a great deal of hardship and who has emerged as a man of great strength. She was supposed to be a working girl, who had been out of her bathing suit in a house containing her clothes is burned down and her escort disappears. She is befriended by a man with a car, who offers her a ride to his home, where she finds and takes her to his home.

She gets dry clothes and is ready to be taken to her own home, where they are confronted by the manager, who has just been seen leaving grounds for a divorce. Of course the couple finally fall in love and are married, driven to it by circumstances.

They play at the Apollo the first part of the week had a distinct English flavor but was novel on that account. It was called "The House of the Seven Gables" and amid the well kept grounds and in the lovely house of a large estate. The story took up the fortunes of two Miss Blonches, one of whom was the wife of the other. They attended a party the younger carried a handkerchief bearing the name of the aunt. She was greatly admired by an eligible young man named Dolly as embroidered on the handkerchief. So later, as he was starting on a trip, he addressed Miss Morling with a note asking her to meet him at the hotel. She returned. The aunt received the proposal and prepared for the wedding.

and on his return he found himself engaged to the elder Miss Blossom, a young girl half a dozen years nearer her own age. After the aunt finds out the truth and is almost broken-hearted, the explorer sees that she is a wonderful woman and that she is the woman to whom he owes the qualities which he admires in the younger girl were taught her by her aunt. So he resigns himself to his fate and marries her.

The Douglas Fairbanks picture did not get here for the Thursday matinee but some of the Ford scenic film shorts and comedies for it. It was a hand for the evening show, and was also put on Friday. He suggested that he would go back to the girl dancing in the cafe and then the shooting took place where now station agent in the town, and he assisted in the shooting of the man in the Desert country and an old deserted ranch house were the scene of the events.

Midred Harris had opportunity for the first time, which is her special line of acting, in the Thursday picture, "Barrowed Clothes." She was supposed to be a working girl, who had been out of her bathing suit in a house containing her clothes is burned down and her escort disappears. She is befriended by a man with a car, who offers her a ride to his home, where she finds and takes her to his home.

Construction has been stopped for two years; Housing Shortage unprecedented—

BUILD NOW

Turn Your Vacant Lot
Into a Paying Investment—
Own Your Own Home and Avoid High Rents

YOU'VE waited years for an opportunity like this—you'll wait years again.

Have you seen people hunting this town over for a place to live? Have you seen rents jump? Then meet the demand by building a house on that vacant lot, and turn it while you have a "top market."

If you want a safe, sure, certain investment, buy a lot and build a house on it. Don't wait for prices to go down—they aren't going down further for years. The time to build is when the market is good. Prices may be high—but so are your returns.

Have you planned to own your own home? Then now, if ever with rents going still higher, is the time to build just what you've wanted and move into it.

You can get materials and labor and deliveries now—a few months hence, when the building and Reconstruction movement is in full swing, you'll wonder why you passed the chance you have now.

Every house you build releases another home or apartment—adds to the prosperity of the city—adds to your property. Talk this over with your contractor and start figuring today.

Buy Now! Repair Now! Paint Now!

OUR national life is like a row of falling dominoes. When you buy, you force the merchant to replenish his stock, he forces the manufacturer to produce, and he in turn must buy supplies. The railroads are busy, the mines work—our whole industrial life teems with prosperity. That prosperity comes right back to you.

JUST now our nation faces the most crucial period of its history. Our biggest customer, the war, is defunct. He has stopped buying.

Unless we fill the breach, the lack of business will stop factories, merchants, industry. We're shifting our gears from war to peace, and we dare not stall our industrial engine. Now's the time to do those things that we postponed until "after the war." Paint your house, repair the front steps, refurnish the bedroom. Buy—and keep industry going. Fill the breach that the end of the war has caused, until we get back to normal as a nation.

UNLESS we work together, unless we spend our money, Reconstruction will be a long, perilous, expensive process.

Cool Cooking!

—an oil stove is ideal for Summer homes, camps or anywhere---less heat—less cost.

Break away from the exhaustive heat of the gas stove or wood range, and all the trouble that goes with them.

An oil stove cooks as well—but is coolest to work with, because it throws very little heat. It's more convenient, more economical, can be moved anywhere in a minute.

For the summer home or camp where gas is not available, an oil stove solves the cooking problem. Light in weight, easy to move, but most efficient for cooking and baking.

Florence oil stoves have stood the test that proves them the best. Come in several sizes, with or without top oven. Nicely finished in blue enamel. Come see them.

YOUR NEW HOME IS READY

Next to Your Loved Ones---A Home is the Most Precious Thing to Have--To Own

We have three well located houses for sale: two of which have just been completed and ready for immediate occupancy. One is located on the corner of Park Ave. and Galena St., and the other two face on Galena St., opposite the Fourth Ward Park, only four blocks from the site of the new high school, but six blocks from Milwaukee St., straight back of the Grand Hotel.

They are well located, placed on large lots, surrounded by beautiful shade trees, cement sidewalks all in, nice lawns, gardens, good driveways, etc., etc. They are about the same in number of rooms, etc., but vary in shape and style.

We all know that present day prices are very high and building materials are very hard to get even at ever-soaring prices. The materials for these houses were bought some time ago and naturally at much lower than present day prices. The mechanics who built these houses are mostly our own men. In other words we dare say that it would cost from 20 to 25% more to build them today. We are positively giving you the advantages of all these things and fully believe that we are offering you THE BEST HOME BUY OF YOUR LIFE WHEN WE OFFER THEM AT

$5500.00 EACH

Cash in full; or, $2500.00 cash, and a good 3-year term mortgage on balance—with privilege of paying part each interest date.

These substantial houses are modern in every respect; all the materials to build them (bought right here in Janesville), are the very best obtainable. You will find only the very best and the highest class of workmanship throughout. Each and every mechanic who has helped to construct them will gladly vouch that they are built with only the best materials and by the most skilled workmen.

Basement under entire house, fine cement floors, laundry in basement, the famous Holland furnace, best hardware used throughout, etc., are some of the many good features of the lower section of house.

Three large rooms and reception hall on the first floor; oak floors, oak finish throughout, large windows of modern type, plate glass front doors, etc., etc.

Three good sized rooms, hall and bath on second floor, large medicine cabinet with double plate glass French mirror door, roomy closets, etc.

We can safely say that these homes will compare most favorably with homes of the much more expensive style. Owning a home brings a sense of responsibility that truly makes life worth living. It is the one material possession that is well worth all the sacrifice that is necessary to obtain it. "Home is where the heart is."—Own your own home.

These homes are all ready for your inspection. In justice to yourself, you should at least see these new homes. Phone for an appointment.

LENQUIST HOPE OF LOCAL TEAM

By George McManus.

VILLAGERS WILL FACE SLAB STAR

Well fans the zero hour is rapidly approaching and manager Jimmie Murphy of the Janesville team said today that before Old Sol went to rest tomorrow night the Janesville would have another victory to their credit over Footville. Manager St. Verthorn of Footville issued a similar statement and he is so sure that his team are capable of handing the Janesville a trouncing, that he is bringing all of Footville and the surrounding community to Janesville tomorrow to witness the slaughter.

For the first time in several years interest in the game at the Fair Grounds tomorrow afternoon is running high and many bets have been recorded. With all Footville coming to Janesville, the majority of the local fans eagerly waiting for Umpire Libby to start the game, the Fair Grounds should be packed to capacity tomorrow afternoon.

Here is something for the girls. In every other city in the United States where baseball is played the girls flock to the ball parks. In Janesville it is far different and the girls seem to think that a baseball game is only for men.

Now, girls, Manager Murphy has promised to have the grand stand in the game and there will be no chance of you spoiling your new frock, so why not postpone that other party and go out to the ball park and watch some real baseball. We will enjoy it and real baseball. The boys will play better or at least try to if they know that a crowd of pretty girls is watching them.

Local fans have been complaining of the condition of the infield at the Fair Grounds, but Manager Murphy had a crew of men at work until a late hour last evening massaging the playing field and the team roller was to be used this morning.

Murphy claims that the field is in first class condition for a fast game and all of the bumps have been taken out of the infield. In the outfield the grass will not be neck high as usual and the fans will have an opportunity of viewing the work of the infielders.

Promptly at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon the parade of the band will be headed by the Bowler City band which has been engaged and will assist in entertaining the fans during the game. Should the game become uninteresting the band will be asked to give an entertainment.

In order to accommodate the large crowd, arrangements have been made with the management of the Janesville Traction Company to run special cars during the afternoon. Taxi cab and bus service will also help in carrying for the big crowd.

THREE GAMES IN CITY LEAGUE TODAY

Three games are to be played in the city league tomorrow afternoon and according to predictions the three leading teams are going to find some tough opposition. During the past week the teams representing the Earl, York, and the Seneca Co. and the Y. M. C. A. have all been strengthened and their respective managers promise to make it interesting for the league leaders.

John, who is acting as head of the league during the absence of Mr. Craig, said today that at a meeting of the league officials held Thursday night it was unanimously decided to hold a weekly meeting, every Monday night at 7 o'clock.

At the meeting to be held next Monday night the main topic of discussion will be umpires. Since the start of the season umpires have been scarce and more are needed if the games are to be played.

Mr. Smith said it was decided at the meeting held Thursday night that in case umpires were not available that each team who plays, delegate a man to act in their place. They would go behind the catcher.

Every league official is requested to be at the meeting Monday night, and any of the men find it impossible to attend the meeting are urged to point another man to represent him at the meeting.

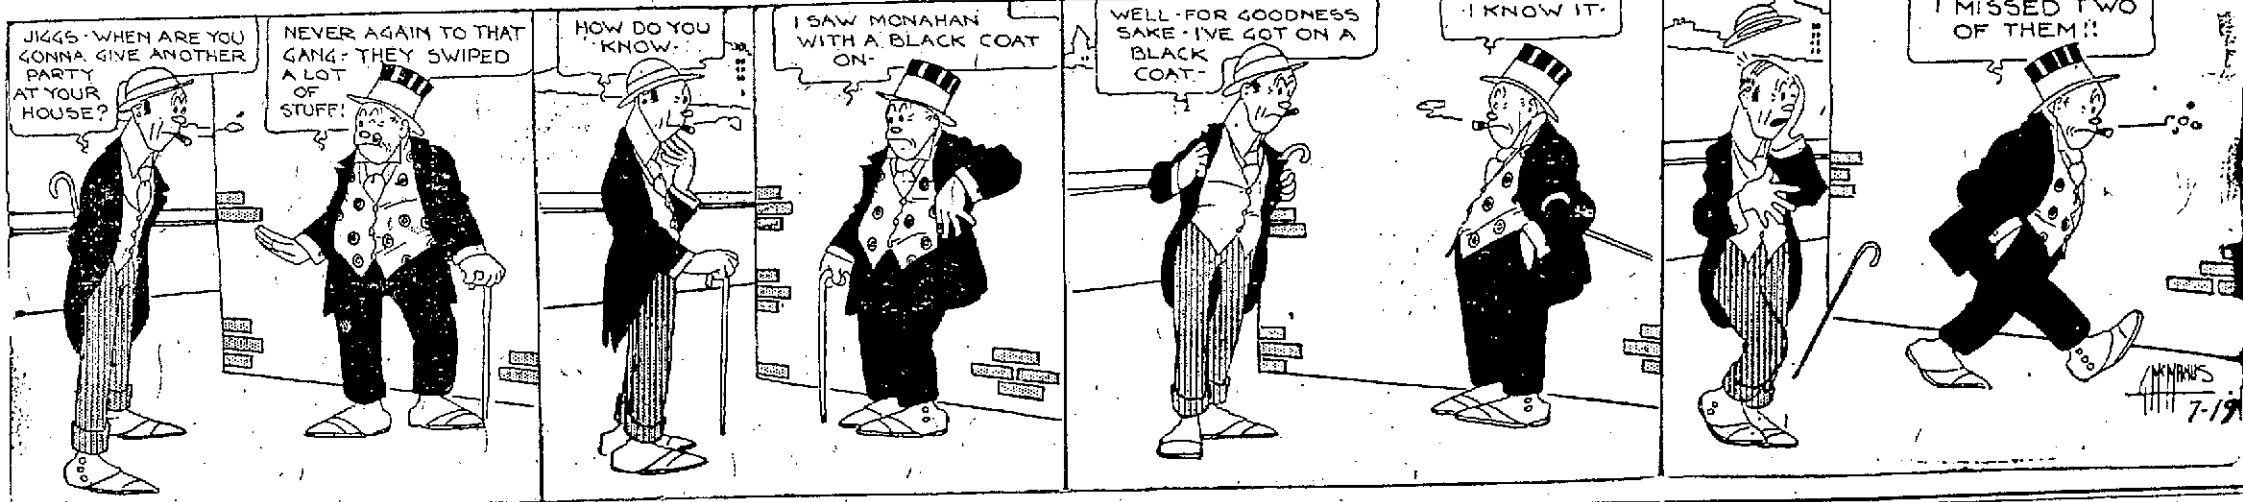

Information received from the Seneca team today indicates that the Seneca team are anxious to play several games before the season closes. They issued a challenge to local teams are anxious to book two twilight games.

JOSH DEVORE AGAIN GETS HIS RELEASE

Josh Devore has been released again. For the seventh time little Josh has received the pink slip, but he is not worried because he will probably hook onto another job within a few weeks, possibly within a few days.

Devore should have the model for the consecutive release record. Since he was cut out of the pennant winning Giants by John McGraw, Josh has been shifted around from pillar to post in the majors and minors, and just when the fans begin to look for the announcement of his permanent retirement, he lands another job.

Devore was let out by the Indianapolis club of the American association this time. He was given a job this season by Manager Jack Hendricks when it was feared the Hoosiers would not be able to find enough clever young material to keep even in the race. Devore performed nicely, although not as brilliantly as he performed some few seasons ago. Father Time has laid a heavy hand on the distinctive one, but his batting optic is still good enough to hold him in several of the faster minor circuits.

Unconditional releases are usually accompanied by sadness for most players. The pastimers declare that the unconditional release means a decision for Father Time, but Devore only smiled when he got his last week's pink slip and he departed for the Indianapolis club with a big broad smile and the best wishes for Hendricks and his crew. Hendricks says Devore's smile makes the release proposition a tough job for the manager. It's hard to beat the man who smiles at adversity.

Devore is an oddity in other directions, too. He admits he is growing up and is going to be a father. He plays it just that much harder for him to come back for the next one. "The old muscles and bones don't revive like they used to," he said, "and I'm going to keep them limbered up now for the rest of the season if we have to play in a class 'D' league. It is rumored Devore may join the Toledo club in a few days."

ALL STARS TO MEET GATES MACHINE TEAM

The All-Stars will play what will probably be their hottest game when they meet the Yates Machine Co. team of Beloit, at the Yates diamond tomorrow. The Yates Machine Co. team is said to be the fastest in Beloit, outside of the Paires, but Manager Bick has put his men through some stiff practice the past week.

Jack Wootton will pitch for the Beloit team. "The Stars" lineup will be as follows: Fullman, ss; Graesslin, 3b; Wall, Crowley, c; Marko, 1b; Babcock, 1c; McGinley, 2b; Zahn, cf; Wall, Crowley, p. Bick, p.

A new right fielder will be in action a week from tomorrow, as Graf will no longer be on the team. The Stars have nearly completed their program, which promises many good games. They probably will play the Yates team a return game some time in August.

JACKSON LEADING AMERICAN LEAGUE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]
Chicago, July 19.—"Shonless" Joe Jackson, the hard hitting outfielder of Chicago, is the new American league batting leader.

Unofficial figures released today show he has an average of .354. Peckinpaugh, New York, is second with .345. Cobb and Veach of Detroit are tied for second with .345. The averages include games of Wednesday.

Babe Ruth, Boston, is out to establish a new home run record. He has piled eleven circuit drives, the number he collected last season. Johnson of Cleveland, who fell from sixth to eighteenth place in batting, continues to lead base stealers, with 19.

Leading batters for twenty-five or more games: Jackson, Chicago, .354; Veach, Detroit, .345; Cobb, Detroit, .345; Peckinpaugh, New York, .345; Flagstead, Detroit, .339; Sisler, St. Louis, .337; McMullin, Chicago, .333; Ruth, Boston, .329; Williams, St. Paul, .328; Tobin, St. Louis, .316.

Jim Thorpe, Boston, continues to top the National league hitters with .373. Other leading batters for twenty-five or more games: Cravath, Philadelphia, .354; Myers, Brooklyn, .337; McHenry, St. Louis, .325; Young, New York, .325; Williams, Philadelphia, .320; Wheat, Brooklyn, .317; Wingo, Cincinnati, .317; Burns, New York, .311; Kauff, New York, .310.

Henrich, New York, still leads American association batters with .355. Other leaders for twenty-five or more games: Becker, Kansas City.

I. W. W. RED TERROR CAMPAIGN DISCLOSED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]
New York, July 18.—Open advocacy of the "Red Terror," the destruction of the American government and the forcible seizure of power by the workers was contained in magazines printed in Russian and Finnish by the I. W. W., which were offered in testimony at today's session of the joint legislative committee which is investigating radical and seditious activities in this state.

Extracts from the magazines which were read by translators included such sentences as: "The bourgeoisie can be paralyzed only by the red terror." "Burn the codes of law; take all the riches; death to the bourgeoisie." "One of the most effective weapons is sabotage; let us attack with the ferocity of tigers."

HERE'S A HOT ONE
New York—Sergeant Frank O'Connor, the expert pistol marksman of the Metropolitan Police, saved the life of an errand boy in a Grand Street novelty shop in a peculiar manner. The boy was taking balloons to be distributed in small batches among street peddlars. In trying to see how many he could take, the boy "bit off more than he could chew" and being carried up and out over the street through skylight.

O'Connor was passing and broke enough of the balloons one at a time to bring the boy down.

BENJAMIN READY
New York—Joe Benjamin, lightweight champion of California is getting into condition in Harlem for a strenuous series of bouts this month and next. He will make his first start in the East at Philadelphia where he also will meet Champion Bennie Leonard at a date to be chosen soon.

HALL GARAGE COMPANY
WAUSAU, WIS
5-20-19.

The All American Truck Company,
Chicago, Ill.

Gentlemen:

I take great pleasure in complimenting you on your All American Truck. Your Mr. George R. Smith, Jr., called on me yesterday with your One-Ton Model All American Truck. I advised Mr. Smith I was very busy at that time, as I was having trouble with a ton and one-half ton Truck loaded with a thirty-two hundred and sixty-five pound lathe in transit for Wausau.

Mr. Smith and I drove to where the Truck had been stalled in the sand since Friday. We had to dig a trench for the wheels of your truck so as to make it low enuf to transfer the load from our truck, which was buried to the axle. After transferring the load from our high priced ton and half Truck to your one-ton Truck, Mr. Smith turned his truck around, hooked on a toe rope and very easily pulled our truck out with our load on his truck, I feel that I should write you of this wonderful demonstration of power.

I have sold and handled trucks selling as high as $4000.00, but none of them has ever made a better showing of power, speed or riding qualities. We made just as good time with the load as we did empty. I believe your truck to be the best job I have ever seen regardless of price. Consider me an All American booster, as I could not be otherwise after seeing this with my own eyes.

Yours very truly,
HALL GARAGE COMPANY,
L. H. Hall, Manager.

Photograph of this All American Truck showing the above load can be seen at our office. Trucks and Chassis carried in stock here.

THE WISHING PLANE

As Jack and the king rushed out of the kitchen door into the castle yard, they heard Captain Brave call to the robbers to stop. A minute later there were two shots fired. Jack heard Captain Brave say, "I wouldn't have fired if they had stopped."

Jack and his friends rushed up to Captain Brave and found him pointing his gun at the two robbers, who were lying on the ground. The king wondered that one or both of the men had not been killed until Captain Brave explained that he had deliberately fired low so that he wounded them in the legs instead of attempting to kill them.

The men's wounds were bound up and they were taken back to the stables and kept there until the other guards were summoned with their prisoners from the ruins.

When the king questioned them, the robbers admitted that they had robbed the castle and that the things they had taken were concealed in nooks and corners of the cellar on top of the mountain.

This man also confessed to other crimes which had puzzled people of the little kingdom for many months. A few minutes later Jack and his little friends saw the men taken away, and knew that they would spend the next few years, at least, behind prison walls.

Then before all the guards and everybody, the king said to Jack: "The queen and I and our little kingdom owe you much for what you have done in clearing up this band of robbers. We will never forget how both you and Captain Brave have helped us out of our troubles."

Now that the excitement was all over, Jack's ankle wouldn't be forgotten, and the pain made tears come to Jack's eyes. When he told Lady dearest what had happened, she very promptly took him into the castle and in a few minutes had bandaged the ankle and eased the pain. Jack felt very much like a hero. Jane and Jeanne and everyone else wanted to wait for him.

Booth had done his part in catching the robbers, too. Captain Brave told the folks how Booth's frantic barking had called his attention to the robbers when they ran out of the kitchen door. Booth would have liked to have told them how one of the robbers kicked him, but once more he couldn't say what he thought. The robbers probably knew what Booth thought of him, though, for Booth had taken a good bite at the man's leg before Captain Brave shot him.

The next day a search of the ruins uncovered all of the things stolen by the robbers. The children were allowed to go along in the auto which carried back the stolen goods belonging to the folks in the country around the castle. Of course, every place Jack went, he was a hero. Later in the day Jack watched the guards at the castle dynamite the secret passageway to close it up so that it could never be used again.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, Saturday, July 15, 1879.—H. D. McKinney will leave Monday for an extended eastern trip.

Charles Dutton has gone to Vermont for a visit. He will be absent about a month.

Major P. E. Stevens, who has been ill, is regaining his health by taking ocean baths on the Maine coast. He will remain there for some time.

J. A. Webb has purchased of H. M. Hart the balance of the latter's homestead, consisting of about 40 feet front, just south of the former purchase.

The Bower City Rifles have received an invitation to the Green county fair, to be held in Monroe Sept. 18, 19 and 20. They will take up the matter for consideration at their regular drill Monday evening.

Ed. Pease, formerly of this city, now of Nebraska, is in the city. He appears to be in good health despite that fact that he was thought to have been burned to death about a year ago.

Mr. Pease says the fire came so close that his clothing was scorched.

Mrs. Dr. Treat of Chicago, who is visiting in the city, has received some interesting photographs and papers from her son, Leslie H. Treat, who is an employe of a western railroad. One of the pictures is of an immense engine with a boiler 21 feet long. A path is being cut through the mountains for the railroad.

At a meeting of the Republicans of the Second assembly district this afternoon C. L. Valentine and Henry Palmer were chosen delegates to the Madison convention.

W. T. Vankirk called the meeting to order.

It's gittin' so lots o' folks run 'n' an automobile wreck jest 't git a drink. We never remember whether a pleasant woman wuz purty or not.

London—German prisoners are employed in exterminating the moth pest in several orchards near Sittingbourne.

Children's Bible School to Close Next Week

The last week of the summer Bible school at St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church begins Monday at 8:50 in the morning.

A public closing will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The members, parents, and friends are all invited to attend.

Plans are now being made for the school picnic which will be held Wednesday, July 30, at Crystal Springs.

TAFT IS TO SPEAK AT LAKE GENEVA

Lake Geneva, July 17.—Ex-President William Howard Taft will speak in Lake Geneva, Saturday night, Aug. 2. The address has been arranged by 30 business men, who have guaranteed the $3000 fee of the Lyceum bureau.

To accommodate the large attendance from all sections of the country, the address will be given in the large court at Horticultural hall. Judge Taft will arrive here on the afternoon of Aug. 2, and remain until the following night. He will probably discuss the League of Nations in his talk. The famous statesman and jurist will be the first United States executive to visit this city since the time of General Grant.

$5,500 TO MEET LYNCH

Baltimore—Sam Harris, local promoter, has offered Champion Peic Herman $5,500 to meet Joe Lynch, the international boxing sensation and conqueror of Jimmy Wilde, in a title battle. Harris says he will give Herman a check for an additional $1,000 as soon as he signs up.
